EU Local Councillors Network

Working together to bring Europe closer to local communities

Are you a locally elected representative from a region, province, city, town, municipality or village and eager to bring Europe closer to your local community?

Join the EU Local Councillors Network today!

<https://eu-local-councillors.europa.eu/>

This initiative by the European Commission and the European Committee of the Regions brings together more than 3,000 local and regional elected representatives from all EU Member States. It aims to strengthen communication about the EU at local level and to encourage active dialogue on European issues in towns, cities and regions.

What do you get by joining the network?

Becoming EU Local Councillor gives you access to:

- A wide range of information on relevant EU services, initiatives and funding opportunities.
- Dedicated events at local, national and EU level.
- A hotline for EU-related questions.
- A broad network of local councillors across the EU to exchange best practices.
- Seminars and training on EU topics, and possibly even a study visit to Brussels.

What do members do?

As EU Local Councillor, you will:

- Inform citizens about EU initiatives in your local community.
- Organise public events and citizens' dialogues on EU topics.
- Initiate sessions on EU topics in your local/regional council.
- Share your experiences and feedback with the EU institutions.
